PATIENT PORTAL CONSENT FORM

The Center requests that you read and sign this consent form to gain access to your personal health care information on our Patient Portal (website). The Center provides the Patient Portal, for the exclusive use of established patients, in order to enhance patient-physician communications. All users must be established by a previous office visit.

We strive to keep all of the information in your records correct and complete. If you identify a part of your record that is incorrect, you agree to notify us immediately. In addition, by use of this portal you agree not to provide false or misleading information. The information on this site is maintained by the Center at 4379 Ridgewood Center Drive, Suite 102, Woodbridge, Virginia 22192. For questions about this site, you may contact us at 703-680-7950. We provide limited internet-based health care information related to reviewing lab results, medications, requesting prescription refills, and sending messages to our staff. The Center does not provide emergency services for users through the Patient Portal website. If you feel you are having an emergency or other urgent matter you should proceed to the local Emergency Room. For established patients, we have doctors on call nights and weekends who may be contacted by calling our office after hours.

The Center hereby informs you that:

- All internet communication with our staff is recorded in your medical record.
- Staff members other than your physician will be involved in receiving your messages, and routing them to the doctor, nurse, or management as necessary.
- Woodbridge and Manassas hours of operation are Mondays and Wednesdays from 8:00am-7:00pm, and Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 8:00am- 4:30pm. Dumfries hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm. We encourage you to use the website at any time; however, messages are held for us until we return the next business day. Messages are typically handled within 1-2 business days. If you do not get a response within 2 business days, please call our office at the number above.
- The types of transactions available online are: messaging to medical office staff, reviews of existing appointments, medication lists, refills, laboratory results, patient statements, medical history, and contact information updates.

I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand all disclosures in this form and the risks associated with online communications, between my physician and me, and consent to the conditions outlined herein. This form applies to all family members that are established patients at the Center. This consent remains in effect until rescinded by the patient.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AGREEMENT

Payment is expected at time of service. Payment may be made by cash or major credit card. No checks are accepted. Any fees, deductibles, co-insurance, or co-payment is payable at time of service.

PAYMENT RESPONSIBILITY: The undersigned assumes responsibility for payment for services in accordance with the standard rates and terms of the Center, whether to sign as a patient or guarantor, where insured or uninsured. As the undersigned, I fully understand: (a) my insurance, if any, is a contract between myself and the insurance company, except in certain cases where the Center has a specific contract with my PPO, HMO, or other third party payer; the Center does not explain nor determine if services are covered by my insurance, if any, so any inquiries to explain or determine insurance coverage for services are between myself and the insurance company; (b) any balance remaining after insurance, if any, approves or denies payment is my responsibility to pay; if my insurance company denies a claim for services for any reason, whether at the time or subsequent to receiving services, I assume full responsibility for payment in accordance with the standard rates and terms of the Center; (c) if I am not able to pay the standard rates for services received or to be rendered, whether insured or uninsured, I can apply for the Center’s Sliding Fee Discount Program.

In the event all charges for services are not paid in full when due, whether insured or uninsured, and collection activity is instituted, whether by a collection agency or an attorney (or both), I agree to be responsible for balance of charges for services and treatment received and all costs reasonably associated with such collection activity including, but not limited to, reasonable collection fees, attorney’s fees, and court costs.

I hereby authorize the Center to release all medical information to all my insurance carriers, other third party payers, including Medicare or its agents, or the Social Security Administration, as may be required or requested for the processing of claims for insurance, social security, disability, or Worker’s Compensation or other insurance purposes.

AUTHORIZATION TO PAY INSURANCE BENEFITS

I hereby authorize the payment of any insurance or other medical benefits directly to GPW Health Center. The undersigned, having read and understood the agreement, accepts this financial responsibility agreement.

UNINSURED PATIENT THAT IS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR DISCOUNT

The Center is required by the Federal government guidelines to request personal information and documentation to validate current household size and household gross income if the patient wants to apply for the Sliding Fee Discount Program (SFDP).

By signing below, you confirm and understand:

- (a) You do not qualify for the SFDP based on the personal information and documentation provided
- or
- (b) You decline to apply for the SFDP

In either case, the patient is responsible for 100% of the financial cost of the medical services received including, but not limited to, office visit, medical procedures, medical tests and/or laboratory services.

To receive an office visit and meet with a health care provider today, you agree to pay a deposit of $120.

You understand that the payment of $120 fee is only a deposit.

The actual office visit charge cannot be determined until you meet with your health care provider. You accept responsibility for actual charges of the office visit.

If the health care provider determines procedures and/or labs are necessary, you will be responsible to pay additional amount for those procedures and/or labs.

If the total charges are more than the $120 deposit, the charges in excess of $120 will be billed directly to you, the patient and paid by you, the patient.

If the total charges are less than the $120 deposit, the difference will be reflected as a credit on your account.

You can change your mind at any time and apply for the SFDP; however, should you choose to apply for the SFDP and qualify for a discount, the discount is not retroactive.

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Purpose

GPW Health Center ("CENTER"), its professional staff, employees, and volunteers follow the privacy practices described in this Notice. This Notice, which was developed to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"), describes the general ways your protected health information ("PHI") may be used and disclosed in order for CENTER to provide you with medical treatment, to collect payment for the services rendered to you by CENTER, and to facilitate CENTER health care operations. PHI, as defined by HIPAA, means your personal health information which is found in your medical and billing records and which relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health conditions or the provision of payment for services related to those health conditions. During the course of treatment, payment and health care operations activities, this may include information created or received by health care providers, insurance companies, and/or your employer.

Your Health Information Rights

You have the following rights regarding your PHI. To exercise any of the following rights, you must submit a written request. Forms are available on our website, <http://www.gpwhealthcenter.org>, or by contacting CENTER's Privacy Office at (703) 680-7950, ext. 3107.

- A copy of this Notice. You may obtain a paper copy of this Notice at any time, even if you have been provided with an electronic copy. You do not have to submit a written request to obtain the Notice. Paper copies of this Notice may be obtained from the registration desk. You may obtain an electronic copy of this Notice on our web site, <http://www.gpwhealthcenter.org>.
- Inspect and copy. You may inspect and/or receive a copy of your PHI maintained by CENTER. CENTER may charge you a reasonable fee for copying your information. In certain situations that are defined by law, CENTER may deny your request but you will have the right to have the denial reviewed as set forth more fully in a written denial notice.
- Request restriction. You may request limitations on how CENTER uses and/or discloses your PHI. CENTER is not required to agree to your request. If CENTER agrees to your request, CENTER will comply with your request unless the use or disclosure is necessary in order to provide you with emergency treatment or is otherwise required by law.
- Amend your PHI as provided by law. To request an amendment, you must submit a written request to the CENTER's Privacy Officer. You must provide a reason that supports your request. CENTER may deny your request: if it is not in writing, if you do not provide a reason in support of your request, if the information to be amended was not created by the CENTER (unless the individual or entity that created the information is no longer available), if the information is not part of your PHI maintained by the CENTER, if the information is not part of the information you would be permitted to inspect and copy, and/or if the information is accurate and complete. If you disagree with the CENTER's denial, you will have the right to submit a written statement of disagreement.
- Receive confidential communications. You may request communications from CENTER regarding your PHI be provided to you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you may prefer to receive mail regarding your PHI at an address other than your usual mailing address. You must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.
- Accounting of disclosures. You may request a list of disclosures made by CENTER of your PHI to persons or entities other than for the purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations, or pursuant to your specific authorization. This list will contain each disclosure CENTER has made for the past six (6) years, but not prior to April 14, 2003. If you make more than one request in a 12-month period, CENTER may charge you a reasonable fee.
- Breach of Privacy. In the event of a breach of your privacy, CENTER will take all steps required by law, including a risk assessment and the appropriate notifications, and inform you of any steps you should take to protect yourself against harm due to a breach.

CENTER Responsibilities

CENTER is required by law to ensure your PHI is kept private in accordance with federal and state law and provide you with notice of CENTER's legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. CENTER is required to abide by the terms of this notice as long as it is in effect. If CENTER revises this Notice, CENTER will follow the terms of the revised Notice as long as it is in effect.

Revised: 01/31/2019

PATIENT REGISTRATION FORM

Use and Disclosure of Your Protected Health Information

The following is a list of ways CENTER may use and disclose your PHI. Not every possible use or disclosure in any given section is listed. However, all of the ways CENTER is permitted to use and disclose your PHI will fall within one of the bold-faced print sections below.

- Treatment. CENTER may use your PHI to provide you with medical treatment or services. CENTER may disclose your PHI to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students or other members of your health care team at CENTER to keep them informed about your health status or condition as necessary. For example, a doctor treating you for diabetes may need to tell the dietitian that you have diabetes so appropriate meals can be arranged. CENTER also may disclose your PHI to people outside CENTER who may be involved in your medical care, such as health care providers who will provide specialty care, physical therapy, medical equipment suppliers, or laboratories. Your consent is required for used and disclosure of psychotherapy notes. As of March 2013, immunization records for students may be released without an authorization.
- Payment. CENTER may use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment from your Insurance company or a third party. For example, CENTER may need to provide your health plan with information about treatment you received for an ear infection so that your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the treatment. Also, CENTER may disclose your PHI to your other health care providers to assist those providers in obtaining payment from your insurance company or a third party. You can request that a health plan not be informed of treatment if paid for in full by you.
- Health Care Operations. CENTER may use and disclose your PHI for routine health care operations. Health care operations at CENTER include, but are not limited to, training and education programs, reviewing the quality of care provided by health care professionals; obtaining health insurance or stop-gap insurance; conducting legal services and auditing services; conducting business planning and development activities; conducting risk management activities and investigations; and managing the business and general administrative activities of CENTER. CENTER may also disclose your PHI to your other health care providers to assist them in their health care operations.
- Appointments and Alternatives. CENTER may use and disclose your PHI to contact you to provide appointment reminders, prescription refill reminders, information about disease management or wellness programs, and other communications regarding your case management or health care coordination.
- Business Associates. CENTER may disclose your PHI to CENTER business associates in order to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations. These entities will also be required by law through signed agreements to protect your PHI.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. CENTER may disclose PHI to a coroner or medical examiner to identify a deceased person or to determine the cause of death, or as otherwise permitted by law. CENTER may also disclose PHI about patients of CENTER to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.
- Correctional Institutions. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, CENTER may disclose your PHI to the correctional institution or law enforcement official to provide you with health care, to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others, or for the safety and security of the correctional institution or law enforcement official.
- Disaster Relief Efforts. CENTER may use or disclose your PHI to a public or private entity authorized to assist in disaster relief efforts.
- Health Oversight Activities. CENTER may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency or entity for activities authorized by law, such as audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure.
- Health-Related Benefits and Services. CENTER may use and disclose your PHI to inform you about health- related benefits or services that may be of interest to you or to provide you a promotional gift of nominal value.
- Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. CENTER may disclose your PHI to a family member, other relative, or close personal friend who is involved in your medical care or to someone who helps pay for your care if the PHI disclosed is directly relevant to such person's involvement with your care, unless you tell us otherwise.
- Law Enforcement. CENTER may disclose your PHI for law enforcement purposes, as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.
- Lawsuits and Disputes. CENTER may disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order. In addition, CENTER may disclose your PHI in response to a valid subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process provided that efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested, as required by law.

PATIENT REGISTRATION FORM

- Organ, Eye, or Tissue Donations. If you are an organ donor, CENTER may disclose your PHI to the entity to whom you have agreed to donate your organs.
- Public Health Activities. As required by law, CENTER may disclose your PHI for public health activities, including, but not limited to, the prevention of disease, injury, or disability; reporting births and deaths; reporting child abuse or neglect; reporting reactions to medications or product problems; notification of recalls; infectious disease control; notifying government authorities of suspected abuse, neglect or domestic violence. CENTER may disclose portions of your PHI to local, state and/or federal registry programs as required.
- Research. CENTER may disclose your PHI to researchers when the research has been legally approved and protocols have been established to ensure the privacy of your PHI.
- Specialized Government Functions. When the appropriate conditions apply, CENTER may use PHI of individuals who are Armed Forces personnel: (1) for activities deemed necessary by appropriate military command authorities; (2) for the purpose of a determination by the Department of Veterans Affairs of eligibility for benefits; or (3) to a foreign military authority if you are a member of that foreign military service.
- Serious Threat to Health or Safety. CENTER may use and disclose your PHI when CENTER deems it necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.
- Workers' Compensation. CENTER may disclose your PHI to workers' compensation or similar programs to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or similar programs.
- Sign-in Sheets. CENTER may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk. CENTER may also call your name in the waiting room when your health care provider is ready to see you.
- Appointment Reminders. CENTER may contact you to provide reminders for scheduled or recommended services or treatments.

Written Authority

Written Authorization Except as described above, CENTER will not use or disclose your PHI unless you authorize CENTER to do so, in writing, on the form provided by CENTER. You may revoke any prior authorization in writing. A written revocation will not apply to any previous use or disclosure of PHI made in good faith under a prior authorization. An Authorization form and Revocation of Authorization form are available on our website, <http://www.gpwhealthcenter.org>, or by contacting the CENTER Privacy Office at (703) 680-7950, ext. 3107.

Changes to This Notice

CENTER reserves the right to change this Notice and to make the revised Notice effective for PHI CENTER already has about you as well as any information CENTER receives in the future. A copy of the current Notice or a summary of the current Notice will be posted at patient service locations throughout CENTER and on our website, <http://www.gpwhealthcenter.org>. The effective date of the Notice will appear on the first page of the Notice or summary. In addition, each time you register at or are seen at any CENTER affiliate for treatment or health care services as an inpatient or outpatient, CENTER will have available for you, at your request, a copy of the current Notice in effect.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the CENTER Privacy Office at (703) 680-7950, ext. 3107, or with the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized or retaliated against in any way for making a complaint.

Contact

If you have any questions about this Notice or your privacy rights, or wish to obtain a form to exercise your rights as described above, you may contact the CENTER Privacy Office at (703) 680-7950, ext. 3107.
